

Gwailo have become "notorious for their live shows", playing across the UK this North East outfit draw influence from rock heavyweights throughout the decades, twisting and fabricating their own form of bad-natured blues! Bringing edge swagger and unbridled energy they have been transporting audiences on a Rock N Roll injected journey since 2017.

Gwailo have supported bands such as Australia's Massive, Manchester's Gorilla Riot and The Hot Damn. Releasing their debut EP A Thousand Masks in 2019, and followed by a string of hard rock singles their latest release "Rock N Roll Seduction" has received national and international airplay as well as being hailed as a song that "Captures the essence of Rock's allure" by Stargazer Music magazine and "Nut-grabbing foot-to-the-floor rock n roll" by Backseat Mafia.

The band consists of Michael Curry fronting on lead vocals, Adrian Marczyk thundering on drums, Steve Crosby on bass guitar, Kyle Dickinson delivering rhythm guitar and David Henry taking care of lead guitar duties. United under an unbeatable work ethic to write and perform killer rock music.

Gwailo are currently in pre-production of their debut album which will be released in 2025. As well as new music, 2025 will see the band tour across the UK and hop over to Europe for the first time for multiple shows throughout the year
